

you are invited to be a part of a unique chapter of American culture and history at the Historic Toadlena Trading Post bi-annual community party

june 18, 2011

featuring Honoring Weavers with Canvas and Bronze

the first exhibit of the Wopila Artist Guild

Musical performances by actor

Wes Studi and his band

Traditional Navajo music

~and~

The wedding ceremony of trading post proprietors

Mark Winter and Linda Larouche

Every two years, the Historic Toadlena Trading Post hosts hundreds of guests at this huge community party. Friends of the trading post travel from all directions to celebrate and make merry.

Wopila Artist Guild is pleased to be part of this year's events. Twenty percent of the proceeds of our painting and sculpture exhibit, Honoring Weavers with Canvas and Bronze will be donated to a non-profit fund designed to help teach traditional weaving skills to area youth.

The exhibit will be on display at the Historic Toadlena Trading Post Weaving Museum through August 21, 2011.